

I am very concerned about Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This is a clear violation of federal election law and reflects the dangers of media consolidation.

I understand that Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. As a taxpayer and firm believer in the role of our media in creating a fair democracy, I would expect that the FCC would assert its role in not allowing Sinclair to abuse their position in this way.

Thank you for your attention to this.
